VOLUME - IV

FOREWORD

I am delighted to bring out the Fourth Volume of Collection of G.O.s and Proceedings of the D.C.E. The first volume was a compendium of G.O.s and Proceedings issued during the two years 1999-2001, the second volume comprised those obtained during 2001-2002, the Third Volume pertained to those issued during 2002-2003, where as the present Fourth Volume contains G.O.s and Proceedings of DCE issued during the three years 2003-2006 upto 31.03.2006.

I wish to recall what I had written in the FOREWORD for the Third Volume which is given within quotes. "In one sense, I am very unhappy to bring out this volume (Third) as it contains many G.O.s which snatch away all our hard earned rights. The onslaught on Government employees and teachers in Tamil nadu unleashed by the Tamil Nadu Government is unheard of, in any part of our country ... but I am very confident that the next issue shall definitely contain G.O.s restoring the lost benefits".

True to my prediction, this volume contains many G.O.s restoring our lost benefits. How ever we are yet to get orders on the following :

- (a) Calculation of pension on last month's pay instead of 10 months average emoluments.
- (b) Full Pension for 30 years of service instead of 33 years of service
- (c) Commutation of pension at 40% instead of $31\frac{1}{3}\%$.
- (d) Payment of Pongal Bonus every year.

These four issues which are common for all government employees & teachers find a mention in the election manifesto of DMK, which has been swept back to power and let us hope that the fifth volume shall definitely include orders on these issues as well.

Issues pertaining to college teachers are the following :

- (a) Stagnation increments
- (b) Increments for Ph.D. for all teachers with Ph.D. for the entire period of pay revision (from the date of acquiring Ph.D. or 1.1.96 which ever is later, up to 31.12.2005) without the increments getting absorbed on account of higher fixation at 14940 or selection grade / senior scale.
- (c) Rectification of Senior/Junior anomaly due to sanction of Ph.D. increments.
- (d) Extension of the benefit of increase in special Provident Fund from Rs.5000/- to Rs. 10,000/-
- (e) Recredit of E.L. for the period from 24.7.2003 till date of joining duty during the July 2003 strike.

I am pretty sure our State Office bearers shall soon get favourable orders on the above issues from the employee friendly Tamil Nadu Government. I thank the AUT unit of Holy Cross College for sponsoring the cost of this Fourth Volume.

ORDER :

In the Government Order first read above, among other things, it has been ordered that 60% of arrears of pensionary benefits to those who retired between 1-1-96 and 31-3-98 shall be paid to the pensioners after 5 years i.e. in the year 2003 with interest as admissible to General Provident Fund. Since the year 2000-2001 the State has had to face an unprecedented financial crisis which has made it extremely difficult to pay these arrears. As the arrear amount constituted a substantial financial outgo, the Government has been unable to pay out the same in one go in cash. Taking into consideration the present financial position of the State and all relevant factors, the Government have decided to pay the balance 60% commutation arrears as follows:

- * Arrears on account of Commutation in respect of employees who retired between 1.1.1996 to 31.3.1998, will be paid in three equal annual instalments together with interest as applicable to General Provident Fund starting from the financial year 2004-2005.

2. Accordingly, the Government direct that the balance amount of 60% arrears of commutation along with interest from 1998-99 arrived upto 31-3-2004 be paid in cash, in three equal annual instalments with interest starting from the financial year 2004-2005. The interest shall also be allowed for the balance amount to be paid during 2005-2006 and 2006-2007 at the interest rate as applicable to General Provident Fund.

6. From the Accountant General (A&E), Chennai, Letter No. FMI/I/9-14 / 2002 - 2003/194, dated : 03-12-2002.

ORDER :

In the Government Order first read above, among other things, it has been ordered that 60% of the arrears accruing on account of pay revision for the period from 1-1-1996 to 31-3-1998 shall be credited to General Provident Fund Account of the employees. In the Government Order second read above it has been ordered that the above arrears shall be paid to the employees after 5 years i.e. in the year 2003 with interest and the interest shall accrue with effect from 1-4-1998. In the Government Order third read above relevant provisions in General Provident Fund Rules have been amended in order to enable the Accountant General (A&E), Chennai to keep open the Provident Fund Account beyond the date of retirement of the Government Employees whose pay revision arrears with interest have been ordered to be paid after 5 years i.e. in the year 2003.

2. As the State has had to face an un-precedent financial crisis since the year 2000-2001 which has made it extremely difficult to pay these arrears. The Government has examined the issue of payment of 60% arrears of pay revision ordered in 1998. It will not be possible for the Government to release the entire amount involved in the pay revision arrears to the Government employees who retire after 1-4-2004 financial year itself. As the arrear amount constituted a substantial financial liability, the Government has been unable to pay out the same in one go. Taking into consideration the present financial position of the State and all relevant factors, the Government has decided to pay the balance 60% pay and allowances arrears as follows:

- * 60% pay arrears in respect of those who are still in service will be deposited in a non-interest bearing deposit account from 1.4.2003 and will be paid to employees on retirement in the form of Small Savings Scrips in three instalments. For Example, those retiring during the year 2004-2005, the first instalment of the balance arrears together with interest upto 31.3.2003 will be paid in 2004-2005, the second and third instalment will be paid in subsequent years.

3. Accordingly, the Government, issue the following orders:

- (i) The total arrears payable to each employee calculated upto 31-3-2003 with interest from 1998-99 upto 31.3.2003 will be transferred to a non-interest bearing public deposit account under the following new head of account: K. Deposits and Advances (b) Deposit not bearing interest - 8443 Deposits - 800 - Other Deposits - A.R. Deposit of pay revision arrears under Tamil Nadu Revised Scale of Pay Rules 1998 of Tamil Nadu Government Servants. (8443 00 800 AR 000B) (Receipt) (8443 00 800 AR 0000)
- (ii) The Accountant General (A&E) will transfer the 60% of the entire arrears which were credited into General Provident Fund account together with interest upto 31.3.2003 to the deposit head of account mentioned in Para 3 (i) above. Interest will not be allowed on this amount after 31.3.2003. In respect of Teachers of Elementary Schools and Aided School Educational Officers concerned who are maintaining the General Provident Fund Account shall send proposal to the Government to transfer the pay revision arrears with interest to the deposit account mentioned in Para 3 (i) to the Government for issue of orders separately.
- (iii) In respect of employees, who retire from service after 1-4-2004, the pay revision arrears computed as on 31-3-2003 will be released to the employees in three equal instalments in the form of Small Savings Scrips either as Time Deposit for three years or National Savings Certificate VIII issued option shall be obtained from the individuals. The first instalment will be paid from the starting year of retirement of the employee, second and third instalments will be paid in two subsequent years. No interest is payable beyond 31-3-2003.

(4) The Accountant General (A&E) will issue authorization in respect of each employee retired after 1-4-2004, indicating the total amount due as on 31-3-2003 and the amount to be paid in three equal annual instalments and also furnish the statement to the Heads of Departments / Heads of Offices and the retiring employees. Based on the above authorization order, the Heads of Departments / Heads of offices will issue proceedings for the payment of arrears in three annual instalments and claim the amount due in the starting year of retirement of the employee by presenting the bills in Pay and Accounts Offices / Treasury Offices / Sub - Treasury Offices and to make payment to the individual in the form of Small Savings Scrips either as Post Office Time Deposit for three years or National Savings Certificate VIII Issue. The particulars regarding the first, second and third instalment due and paid for each retiring employee shall be entered in the register maintained in their offices.

Sir / Madam,

Sub : Public Services - Regulation of period of absence from duty by Government Employees/ Teachers for participating in strike from 1.7.2003/2.7.2003 - Reinstated as per orders of the Supreme Court and Panel of Three Judges - Regulation of the period from 1.7.2003/ 2.7.2003 to 24.7.2003 - Revised instructions - Issued.

(5) Govt. Lr. No.40282A/K/2003-6, P & AR (K) Dept. dt. 24.02.2004

In the references cited. It was ordered to regulate the period of absence from duty by Government Employees/Teachers for participating in the illegal strike and reinstated in service as per the orders of the Supreme Court from 1.7.2003, 2.7.2002 to 24.7.2003 as Extraordinary Leave without Pay and Allowance.

2. Employees and Teachers have requested the Hon'ble Chief Minister to take : and to treat the period of absence during the strike from 1.7.2003 / 2.7.2003 to 24.7.2003 on the Principle of "No Work No Pay" cannot be deviated from. However, considering the circumstances and the fact that they had already expressed regret in the Higher Court and to end the strike and to return to duty very early, it has been decided to take a magnanimous view on the whole episode of the strike by the employees and teachers as a misguided unfortunate order to ensure that the Government employees and teachers would extend their unstinting support to the Government in all its efforts to the benefit of the poor and the needy, the period from 2.7.2003 upto and including 4.7.2003 will be treated as "No work No Pay". The remaining period from 5.7.2003 to 24.07.2003 will be treated as duty.

3. Accordingly, Government direct that, in partial modification of the orders issued in this regard, the period of absence from duty by the Government Employees / Teachers who participated in the strike, shall be regulated as follows.

- (i) The period from 1.7.2003 or 2.7.2003 up to and inclusive of 4.7.2003 be regulated as Extraordinary Leave without Pay and Allowances on the principle of "No Work No Pay".
- (ii) The period from 5.7.2003 up to and inclusive of 24.7.2003 be regulated as duty.

DA MERGER

F.No.105/1/2004/IC GOVERNMENT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF FINANCE DEPARTMENT OF EXPEND

Dated the

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject : Merger of 50% of Dearness Allowance/Dearness Relief with basic pay to Central Government employee/pensioners w.e.f. 1-4-2004

The Fifth CPC in Para 105.11 of their Report had recommended that 50% of Dearness Pay each time the CPI increases by 50% over the base pay of the last Pay Commission.

2. This recommendation of Fifth CPC has been considered and the President has decided that, with effect from 1-4-2004, DA equal to 50% of the existing basic pay be merged with the basic pay and shown distinctly as Dearness Pay (DP) and be counted for purposes like payment of allowances, transfer grant, retirement contribution to GPF, License Fee, monthly contribution for CGHS, various ad hoc entitlements for LTC, TA/DA while on tour and transfer and government recommendations, however continue to be governed on the basis of the basic pay alone with account Dearness Pay. In case of existing pensioners, Dearness Relief equal to 50% of present pension will w.e.f. 1-4-2004 be merged with pension and shown distinctly as Pension. Dearness Allowance/Dearness Relief converted into Dearness Pay/ Dearness Relief respectively would be deducted from the existing rate of Dearness Allowance/100% of

3. To ensure that pensioners retiring between 1-4-2004 to 31-1-2005 do not suffer loss in fixation of pension, as a special dispensation in their case, DA equal to 50% of basic pay would be treated as basic pay for purposes of computation of pension. Dearness Pay received by them prior to 1-4-2004. Consequently element of dearness pay exist only for pensioners retired/ retiring from Government of India upto 31-1-2005.

4. In so far as the persons serving in the Indian Audit & Accounts Department are concerned, these orders issue after consultation with the Controller & Auditor General.

| | 2. | G.O. Ms. No. 106, Finance (Allowances) | Department date 07-02-2006 |

I am directed to issue the following clarification in regard to regulation of Dearness Allowance ordered in the Government Orders' cited.

| | Points raised (1) | Clarification Issue (2) |
|-------|---|--|
| (i) | Whether any Office Order has to be issued fixing the Dearness Pay of each individual employees. | No Separate Office Order is fixing the Dearness Pay. It is Dearness Allowance equal to existing basic pay drawn by each employee is distinctly shown as in the pay bill and the Dearness claimed at 21% of the Basic Dearness Pay. |
| (ii) | Whether the Personal pay drawn by the employees can be taken into account for arriving the 50% Dearness Pay as on 1-1-06 | Yes, if the Dearness Allowance present for the Personal Pay, employees such personal pay is calculating the Dearness Pay on the merger of Dearness Allowance |
| (iii) | Whether the Dearness Pay fixed as on 1-1-06 shall be changed as and when the individual employees gets increment or get promoted to next higher post resulting in drawal of higher rate of basic pay. | The Dearness Pay at 50% of basic as on 1-1-06 shall not be static. Dearness Pay shall be enhanced as an employees get increment or promote to higher post which results in drawal of higher rate of basic pay. |

Yours faithfully,

FINANCE (PENSION) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.107, Dated 7th February, 2006

(Parthiba, Thai-25, Thiruvalluvar Aandu 2037)

PENSION - Dearness Allowance - Regulation of Dearness Allowance to Pensioners after the conversion of 50% Dearness Allowance as Dearness Pension with effect from 1-1-2006 - Orders - Issued.

Read the following :-

- (1) G.O.Ms.No.58, Finance (Pension) Department, dated: 13.01.2006
- (2) G.O. Ms. No. 1 05, Finance (Pay Cell) Department, dated:07.02.2006

ORDER:

In the Government Order first read above, orders have been issued sanctioning 71% of Dearness Allowance to the State Government Pensioners / Family Pensioners with effect from 1-1-2006. In the Government Order second read above orders have been issued for the conversion of 50% of dearness allowance.

as Dearness Pension with effect from 1-1-2006 and this Dearness Pension would be deducted from the existing rate of Dearness Allowance.

2. The Government therefore direct that the revised rate of Dearness Allowance shall be 21% with effect from 1-1-2006 and this revised rate of Dearness Allowance shall be calculated on the Basic Pension / Family Pension and Dearness Pension / Dearness Family Pension.

3. In respect of the employees retiring after 1-1-2006, their pension would be fixed based on the average pay, which would include 50% of Dearness Pay and therefore there will be no element of Dearness Pension to them. The Government therefore direct that in respect of the pensioners who retire after 1-1-2006, Dearness Allowance shall be 21% of their pension.

4. The widows and children of deceased Contributory Provident Fund / Non-Pension able establishment beneficiaries of State Government and former District Board who are in receipt of ex- gratia amount are sanctioned 63% of Dearness Allowance on the ex-gratia amount in the Government Order first read above. From 1-1-2006, Dearness Allowance equal to 50% of ex-gratia would be converted into Dearness Ex-gratia. Consequently, revised Dearness Allowance from 1-1-2006 shall be at the rate of 13% on the basic ex-gratia and Dearness ex -gratia.

5. The amount of Dearness Allowance involving a fraction of a rupee shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee. It will be the responsibility of the Pension Disbursing Authority including Public Sector Banks etc. to calculate the quantum of Dearness Allowance payable in each individual case.

6. Pending formal authorization by the Accountant General, the Dearn shall be paid straightaway by the Pension Pay Officer, Chennai-6, Treasury Offi Sector Banks concerned.

7. This order will apply to the following categories of pensioners:-

- i) Government pensioners, Teacher pensioners of aided and local bo Institutions and other pensioners of local bodies.
- ii) Present and future family pensioners; In the case of divisible fam Dearness Allowance shall be divided proportionately;
- iii) Former Travancore-Cochin State pensioners drawing their pension on 1956 in the Treasuries situated in the areas transferred to Tamil Nad data, ie., Kanniyakumari District and Shencottah taluk of Tirunelveli
- iv) Pensioners drawing their pension on 1st April, 1960, in the Tiruttar in whose cases pensions were sanctioned by the Composite Madras 1st October, 1953 or by the Andhra Pradesh State prior to 1st Apri
- v) Pensioners of the Ex-Governor's Head Establishment in receipt of pension;

Sir,

Sub: College Teachers fixation of pay at Rs.14,940/- and allowing increment on normal date - reg.

I am to invite your attention to the subject above and to state that honora in WPMP no. 11009/2005 dt. 28.3.05 has ordered for interim stay on recovery of pay and allowances arising due to regulation of increments before completion where higher start at Rs.14,940/- has been allowed (as per UGC scale of pay grade lectures, who had completed 5 years of service in the scale of Rs.3,700

Therefore this office has been instructed to finalize the cases of college allowing increment on normal date, subsequent to the fixation of pay in the Rs.14,940/- instead of one year from the date of such fixation.

Hence the department officers are hereby informed that no such recovery made from pensioners if any such instructions had already been issued by this
The departments are also informed, if any revision in pension arises out of increment on normal date to any pensioners, the revision proposals along with service registers may be forwarded to this office.

5. சென்னை, மாநிலக் கணக்காயர், சென்னைமண்டல கல்லூரிக் கல்வி இணை இயக்கநருக்கு எழுதியுள்ள 27.6.2005 தேதியிட்ட கடிதம்.

அரசு உறுப்பு கல்லூரிகள் மற்றும் அரசு உதவிபெறும் கல்லூரிகளில் பணிபுரியும் விரிவு 1.1.96 அன்று தேர்வு நிலையிலிருந்து அந்நிலையில் ஐந்து ஆண்டுகள் பணி முடித்தவர்களுக்கு உயர் துவக்கத்தில் (Higher Start) ஊதிய நிர்ணயம் செய்ய அரசு ஆணை வழங்கியுள்ளது. இவ்வ நிலையில் ஊதிய நிர்ணயம் செய்யப்பட்டவர்களுக்கு அவர்களது வழக்கமான ஊதிய உயர்வு நாமல் date of increment) ஊதிய உயர்வு வழங்கக்கூடாது என்றும், ஊதிய நிர்ணயம் செய்யப்பட்ட ஓராண்டு கழித்தே அடுத்த ஊதிய உயர்வு வழங்க வேண்டும் என்றும் சென்னை, மாநிலக் தணிக்கை மறுப்பு எழுப்பப்பட்டது.

மேற்கண்டவாறு, சென்னை, மாநிலக் கணக்காயரால் தணிக்கை மறுப்பு எழுப்பப்பட்ட இப்பொருள் தொடர்பாக மாநிலக் கணக்காயருக்கு உரிய அறிவுரைகள் வழங்குமாறு கோரி, எழுதப்பட்டுள்ளது என்றும், அரசிடமிருந்து உரிய பதில் பெறப்படும்வரையில் பர ஆசிரியர்களுக்கு இவ்வாறு ஏற்கனவே வழங்கப்பட்ட உதிக் உயர்வினை பிடித்தம் செய்யவேண்டியவற்றை பொருத்தமட்டில் மாநிலக் கணக்காயரின் அறிவுரைப்படி செப அரசிடமிருந்து ஆணைகள் பெறப்பட்ட பின்னர் அவர்களிடமிருந்து பிடித்தம் செய்யப்பட்ட மீள்ப் பெற்று வழங்கலாம் என்றும் பார்வை(I)ல் காணும் இவ்வலுவலக கடிதத்தில் வழங்கப்பட்டன.

அதைத் தொடர்ந்து பார்வை(2)ல் காணும் இவ்வலுவலக 26.9.2002 தேதியிட்ட கடிதத்தில் இப்பொருள் தொடர்பாக அரசிடமிருந்து பதில் பெறப்படாத நிலையிலும், அரசிடமிருந்து மாநிலக் கணக்காயருக்கு தெளிவுரைகள் ஏதும் வழங்கப்படாத நிலையிலும் ரூ.14940/- என்ற உயர் துவக்க ஊதியம் நிர்ணயம் செய்யப்பட்டவர்களுக்கு அவ்வாறு நிர்ணயம் செய்யப்பட்ட நாளிலிருந்து ஓராண்டு கழித்தே அடுத்த ஊதிய உயர்வு வழங்கப்படவேண்டும் என்றும், தனியாரது வழக்கமான ஊதிய உயர்வு நாளிலேயே அடுத்து ஊதிய உயர்வு வழங்கப்படக்கூடாது என்றும் தெரிவிக்கப்பட்டது.

மேற்காண் இவ்வலுவலக 26.9.2002 வழங்கப்பட்ட தெளிவுரைகளுக்கு சென்னை, உயர்நீதிமன்றத்தால் 21.2.2003 தேதியிட்ட இடைக்காலத்தடை பிறப்பிக்கப்பட்டதைத் தொடர்ந்து பார்வை(3)ல் காணும் 20.3.2003 தேதியிட்ட இவ்வலுவலக கடிதத்தில் 26.9.2002 தேதியிட்ட இவ்வலுவலக கடிதத்தில் வழங்கப்பட்ட தெளிவுரைகள் சென்னை, உயர்நீதிமன்றத்தின் இறுதி தீர்ப்பிற்குட்பட்டு நிறுத்தி வைக்கப்படுகின்றன என்றும், அக்கடிதத்தின் அடிப்படையில் ஊதியப் பிடித்தம் எதுவும் செய்யப்படக்கூடாது என்றும் தெரிவிக்கப்பட்டது.

பல்கலைக்கழக ஆசிரியர்கள் கழகம் (AUT) சென்னை, உயர்நீதிமன்றத்தில் தொடர்ந்துள்ள ரிட்மனு எண். 10128/2005லும் சென்னை உயர்நீதிமன்றம் இவ்வலுவலக 26.9.2002 தேதியிட்ட கடிதத்தில் வழங்கப்பட்ட தெளிவுரைகளுக்கு மீண்டும் ஒரு இடைக்காலத் தடை உத்தரவு வழங்கியுள்ளது. மேற்காண் ரிட்மனுவில் சென்னை, மாநிலக் கணக்காயரும் பிரதிவாதியாகச் சேர்க்கப்பட்டுள்ள நிலையில் உயர்நீதிமன்றத்தால் வழங்கப்பட்டுள்ள இடைக்காலத் தடையானை சென்னை மாநிலக்கணக்காயருக்கும் பொருந்தும். எனவே சென்னை, மாநிலக்கணக்காயர் சென்னை மண்டல கல்லூரிக் கல்வி இணை இயக்குநருக்கு எழுதியுள்ள பார்வை(4)ல் காணும் தமது கடிதத்தில் ரூ.14,940/- என்ற உயர்நிலையில் ஊதிய நிர்ணயம் செய்யப்பட்ட கல்லூரி ஆசிரியர்களுக்கு அவர்களின் அடுத்த ஊதிய உயர்வினை ஓராண்டு கழித்து வழங்காது, அவர்களது வழக்கமான ஊதிய உயர்வு நாளிலேயே வழங்கி இருப்பினும், அதனை அனுமதிக்கலாம் என்பதாக தமது அலுவலக அதிகாரிகளுக்கு அறிவுரை வழங்கப்பட்டுள்ளதாக தெரிவித்துள்ளார். எனவே, ஓய்வுபெற்றவர்களின் ஓய்வூதியத்திலிருந்து இதன்பொருட்டு தொகை எதுவும் பிடித்தம் செய்யப்படவேண்டியதில்லை என்றும் மாநில கணக்காயர் அறிவுரை வழங்கியுள்ளார். மேலும் வழக்கமான ஊதிய உயர்வு நாளிலேயே அடுத்த ஊதிய உயர்வினை அனுமதிப்பதன் காரணமாக ஏற்கனவே ஓய்வு பெற்றவர்களின் ஓய்வூதியத் தொகையில் மாற்றம் ஏற்படின் அதன் பொருட்டான திருத்திய ஓய்வூதிய கருத்துருக்களை சம்பந்தப்பட்ட ஆசிரியர்களின் பணிப்பதிவேடுகளுடன் தமது அலுவலகத்திற்கு அனுப்பிவைக்குமாறும் மாநிலக் கணக்காயர் மேற்காண் கடிதத்தில் தெரிவித்துள்ளார்.

4. G.O.Ms.No.351, Personnel and Administrative Reforms (FR.III) Department dated 21.10.04.

ORDER:

In the Government Order first read above, orders were issued regulating the surrender of Earned Leave for 15 days every year / 30 days every two years and also while on any kind of leave (except Extra-ordinary Leave-without allowance). In the Government Order second read above orders were issued suspending the facility of Earned Leave for encashment for a period of one year with effect from 28.11.01. Subsequently, in the Government Order third read above, the suspension of facility of Earned Leave for encashment has been extended until further orders. In the Government Order fourth read above orders were issued restoring the facility of surrender of Earned Leave for encashment for 7 days in a year as per the regular annual cycle.

2. The Government Employees and Teachers Unions/Associations have represented to Hon'ble Chief Minister to consider restoration of the facility of surrender of Earned Leave for 15 days per year in lieu of cash. Though the facility of encashment of leave was restored in the Government of India and in most of the States, Hon'ble Chief Minister announced during the Tamil Nadu Government Officials Union and Government Teachers Associations General Conference held on 8.2.2006 that the surrender of Earned Leave for 15 days in a year in lieu of cash, be restored immediately.

3. Accordingly, Government direct that the facility of surrender of Earned Leave for 15 days per year in lieu of cash by Government Servants and Teachers be restored with effect from 8.2.2006. The Government Employees and Teachers are permitted to surrender 15 days of Earned Leave in a year in lieu of cash at their credit as per the regular annual cycle, with effect from 08.02.2006.

Sub: Sanction of stagnation Increment - Regarding.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.AD/UGC/37 dated 22.8.2002 and subsequent reminder dated 26.7.2002 and 26.9.2002 on the subject cited above, I am directed to say that the general instruction of stagnation increment is provided under Government of India 17 below Rule 26 of FRSR should be applicable to all including the instant case and where the maximum of pay scale does not exceed Rs. 22,400/- and also have been stagnating for not less than 2 year.

Yours faithfully

(Sushma Nayyar)
Section Office

PARA 17 OF RULE 26 OF FRSR

17. Grant of Stagnation increment to those stagnating at the maximum of their pay scales and treatment thereof as pay for various service matters. The Fifth Central Pay commissions in their Report have recommended that the existing rules for grant of stagnation increment should continue. Further, it has been recommended that the facility should be available, subject to the condition that the basic pay plus stagnation increment(s) should not exceed Rs. 22,000 per month in the revised scaled of pay. The Government have considered this recommendation.

2. In partial modification of the recommendations and in super session of orders on the subject, it has been decided that all Central Government employees opted for the revised scales of pay in terms of the Central Civil Service (Revised 1997, and who may reach the maximum of the revised scales of pay shall be granted a stagnation increment on completion of every two years at the maximum of the revised scales. the stagnation increment shall be equal to the rate of increment last drawn on their pay scales. A maximum of three such increments shall be allowed on the condition that the grant of stagnation increments shall be restricted to all posts of the pay scale of which does not exceed Rs.22,400.

3. In the case of Government-servants whose pay in the applicable revised scales is fixed at the maximum of the scales as on 1.1.1996, the stagnation increments on the revised scales of pay will be admissible only on expiry of a period of two years reckoned from 1 January 1996. In other words, no Government servant will become eligible for a stagnation increment in the revised scale of pay before 1.1.1998. Consequently, any time spent at the maximum of the pre-revised scales will not be taken into account in determining the eligibility of Government servants to draw stagnation increments on the revised scale of pay. Similarly, the stagnation increment(s), if any, already earned in the pre-revised scales of pay will not be counted towards the maximum of three increments admissible on the revised scale of pay.

4. The stagnation increment will count, as at present, for all purposes including HRA, CCA, pensionary benefits, etc., including fixation of pay on promotion.

(G.I., M.F., (Dept. of Expenditure), O.M. No. 1, (9) / E, III-A/97, dated the 22

It has been decided that the stagnation increment should be taken as paid for determining the eligibility of the officers for allotment of residential accommodation.

In the Government order first read above, the Government ordered the implementation of University Grants Commission Scales of Pay to College Teacher with effect from 01-01-1986 besides prescribing conditions of service. In the Government order second read above, the Government ordered the implementation of revised scales of pay as per the recommendations of University Grants Commission with effect from 01-01-1996. In the said order the Government laid down their policy with regard to the recruitment to the teaching posts in Colleges. According to those orders in respect of recruitment to the Post of Principals of Government Colleges, the then existing system of recruiting from among the Selection Grade Lecturers and Readers based on merit and seniority will continue, provided the candidate fulfill other prescribed qualifications. As for as aided colleges are concerned, the direct recruitment for the post of Lecturers / Principals should be in accordance, with the University Grants Commission's guidelines given in Annexure – II therein. This was considered as a differential treatment between the Government and Aided Colleges, which led to legal and other problems. Further it has been brought to the notice of the Government, that only with effect from 01-01-1996, the requirement of Ph.D. has been prescribed as a requisite qualification, among others, for the post of principles. Since there was no such requirement prior to 1-1-1996, the teachers who were appointed prior to 1-1-1996 without Ph.D. qualification did not face the problem of losing the opportunity of elevation to the post of Principal. The Government were therefore promoting the senior most lecturers as Principals, as they have wider knowledge and experience. As a large number of faculty members entered into service prior to 1-1-1996 and now are due to retire shortly, it will be unfair to require them to get qualified in Ph.D. at this juncture so as to get promotion.

In the background of the above position, the Government examined the policy outlined in the Government order second read above. They have decided to formulate a uniform policy in the matter of qualification for the post of Principles of both the Government / Aided Colleges. In the implementation of the above said policy, the following amendment is issued to 111, Higher Education (H1) Department, dated 24-3-1999.

AMENDMENT

In the Annexure – II to the G.O. (Ms) No. 111, Higher Education (H1) Department 1999, the following shall be substituted for the existing Para 2 :

2. Principals (Grade – I)

- (i) A Masters degree with at least 55% of marks or its equivalent grade "B" in the sev
- (ii) Ph.D. or equivalent qualification
- (iii) A minimum total experience of 15 years of teaching / research in Universities other institution of Higher Education.

Principals (Grade-II)

- (i) A Master Degree with at least 55% of marks or its equivalent grade "B" in the sev
- (ii) Ph.D. or equivalent qualification.
- (iii) A minimum total experience of 15 years of teaching / research in Universities other institution of Higher Education.

EXPLANATION:

- (i) However, the Principles of government Colleges are presently being placed in two basis of the following criteria : Grade – I Principles are posted to colleges with at Courses and a student strength of not less, than 1000 in regular course of study. Grade are posted to other colleges.
- (ii) Appointment to the post of Principals is being made from among the holders of pos (Selection Grade /Reader) in colleges. The Seniority as selection grade Lecturer for promotion.
- (iii) For those who have been promoted as Principals from 1-1-1996 to till the date c order, Ph.D. qualification need not be insisted upon.
- (iv) The decision in respect of implementation of Ph.D. qualification for the promotio in Government / Aided Colleges shall be as follows:-
 - (a) In respect of Lecturers appointed prior to 1-1-1996, the Lecturers must qualify 1 years from the date of issue of this order.
 - (b) If the Lecturers appointed prior to 1-1-1996 and those who have less than 6 yea service to retire, may also be considered for promotion as Principal as per the exi
 - (c) For those who have more than 6 years of service, they should acquire Ph.D. qualific years period from the date of issue of this order, failing which he or she will not after 6 years period for the post of Principal.

- (d) In respect of Lecturers appointed on or after 1-1-1996, the pre-requisite qualification of Ph.D. for promotion as Principal is mandatory.
- (e) All Universities in Tamil Nadu may be requested to adopt the above qualifications uniformly while approving qualifications of Principals in Government / Government Aided Colleges.
- (f) These revised norms will come into force with effect from the date of issue of this order.

3. The Director of Collegiate Education, Chennai - 6 is directed to send suitable proposal to Government for incorporating the above said provisions in the Special Rules for the Tamil Nadu Collegiate Education Service immediately.

To

1. The Chief Reporters, Print Media,
2. The News Editors, Electronic Media.

Sir / Madam,

Sub : University Message to be published in the News items - Requested -]

I would like to inform you that the University of Madras had conducted "Screening Test" in September 1990 for eligibility for appointment as Lecturers in Colleges. The validity period of the SLST certificate issued to the successful candidates as 5 years from 15.5.1991 to 14.5.1996. Now, the Government of Tamil Nadu G.O.Ms.No.502, Higher Education (H1) Department, dated 24.9.2004 have directed to remove the conditional clause of Validity period of said five years. This was considered by the Syndicate of this University at its meeting held on 8.11.2004 and the Syndicate has decided to remove the said conditional clause of five year period indicated in the SLST Certificate issued to the successful candidates. If the conditional clause is removed, the said SLST certificates will become valid forever.

If the original SLST Certificates of the successful candidates who have submitted the said SLST are returned to THE REGISTRAR, UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS, CHENNAI - 600 005 together with a Demand Draft for Rs. 500/- drawn in favour of REGISTRAR, UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS, CHEPAUK, CHENNAI - 600 005, I will issue a fresh SLST certificate to them, removing the conditional clause of validity of five years i.e. from 15.5.1991 to 14.5.1996, as directed by the Government of Tamil Nadu their G.O. Sub : Relaxation from SET / NET for Lecturers in Arts / Science / Commerce Law Colleges - reg.

Sir,

I am directed to say that UGC's considering specific requests received from various for granting exemptions from NET for appointment as Lecturers as per provision laid in UGC Regulations, 2000 on Minimum Qualifications for Appointment and Career Advancement of Lecturers, Readers and Professors in the Universities and Colleges through a duly constituted Exemption Committee. The Commission while considering the minutes of the last Committee meeting held on 11th & 12th April, 2005 at Mumbai, and its meeting held on 15th April, 2005 resolved as under.

"It was informed by the representatives of MHRD that the Govt. has appointed a Committee under the Chairmanship of Prof. B.L. Mungekar to consider the issue regarding NET condition for appointment of Lecturers. The Commission decided that this issue may be kept on hold till the report is received from the Committee appointed by the Government.

Keeping in view the aforesaid resolution of the Commission, it has been decided that till the time the MHRD takes a decision based on the recommendations of 'Mungekar Committee' of exemption from NET in respect of Maharashtra State as well other than Maharashtra being kept on hold by the UGC.

This may also be brought to the notice of the Institutions / Colleges affiliated to you

Finalise courses under 'Career Oriented Programmes'

Staff Reporter

TRUCHY: The Association of University Teachers (AUT) has urged Bharathidasan University to finalise certificate/diploma/advanced diploma courses under the 'Career Oriented Programmes', a scheme of the University Grants Commission.

Noting that no decision had been taken at the recent meeting of the Standing Committee on Academic Affairs (SCAA), the AUT Vice-President, Felicia, said that the courses were envisaged to train students for jobs in the fields of Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) and Software Technology, which require 10 lakh candidates during 2007-2010.

In a statement, Prof. Felicia referred to the lament of IT sector companies that there was bound to be a shortage of newly five lakh qualified IT professionals, and insisted that the shortage could be overcome by making proper use of the COP scheme of the UGC.

The UGC, she said, had sent a circular during April 2006 to all Vice-Chancellors of universities under UGC funding, urging them to introduce career and market oriented / skill enhancing add-on courses that have utility for job, self-employment and empowerment of students under the COP.

The circular also assured seed money of Rs. 7 lakhs and Rs. 5 lakhs for sciences and humanities streams respectively for every certificate/diploma course started under this scheme for all universities and colleges. The UGC had invited their proposals for the courses to be started during 2007-2008, the statement added.

AUT for revision of M.Phil syllabus

Express News Service

CHENNAI, May 17: The Association of University Teachers (AUT) has urged for a comprehensive revision of the M.Phil syllabus, particularly in the context of exempting M.Phil holders from attending the National Eligibility Test (NET).

Welcoming University Grants Commission's decision to exempt lecture-ship aspirants with PhD and M.Phil from the NET (SET), based on the interim report submitted by Prof. Mungelkar Committee, AUT vice-president, Prof. Felicia said the exemption for Ph.D holders had already been recommended by the Pastorgi Committee.

She added that the exemption given to M.Phil holders should make numerous candidates available on the basis of a healthy competition for filling teaching posts in colleges and universities.

Felicia said the dearth of hands was one of the main reasons that had compelled the UGC to take the decision apart from other academic points of view.

However, AUT strongly felt that there was an urgent need to comprehensively revise the M.Phil syllabus. There are three written (theory) papers in the first semester for M.Phil examination, the first paper being 'Research Methodology'. This paper must be strengthened to include the syllabus of paper I of the NET examination as otherwise the appointees would not be properly equipped to contribute to education," she emphasised.

She suggested that the eligibility criteria for appointment as lecturer should not be altered frequently as it had led to serious problems for teachers. In 1985, the minimum qualification for lecturers was prescribed as M.Phil, which was later withdrawn, she said.

"Later NET was insisted upon with relaxation to M.Phil holders up to 1993 and PhD holders up to 2002. Now, the UGC proposed to completely exempt teachers with M.Phil and Ph.D," she said, adding that such frequent changes had led to anomalies in service conditions of teachers, which remained unresolved even now.

AUT welcomes State government's move

Express News Service

TRUCHY, May 25: The Association of University Teachers (AUT) has welcomed the decision to create 'Workers Welfare Fund,' among other announcements of the Tamil Nadu Government made in the Governor's address in the state assembly recently.

AUT vice-president and zonal chairman Professor Felicia lauded the decision to create the welfare fund for the employees of all the unorganised sectors, especially farm workers in the state.

The association has further said in a statement issued here that it welcomes several other announcements too, made by the state government.

"AUT welcomes the decision to regularise all contract teachers in schools and to bring them under pay based on time scale, instead of the consolidated pay system followed now," the statement said.

Move to clear all problems in connection with admissions to engineering and medical colleges in the state and the announcement to reduce fees in self-financing courses in government colleges has also been greeted by AUT.

Further, AUT welcomed the move to usher in reservations in all unaided self-financing colleges for SC/STs and OBCs, the decision to repeal TESMA, the decision to fill up the existing vacancies in government departments and college with regular and qualified staff under time scale pay and increasing the upper age limit of candidates by five years for entry into government service.

However, the expected announcement on release of pay arrears, consequent to revision of pay scales of government employees and teachers with effect from January 1996, did not find a mention in the governor's address, which is disappointing, Felicia has stated. In fact, the orders were issued by DMK government in 1999, with assurance that the arrears would be released with five years' interest, she said.

Also the absence of any announcements on restoring the rights of government employees, withdrawn by the previous government, failed to find a mention in the address, she regretted. Moreover the repeal of 'Constitution Government Colleges Act' has also not found any mention, she added.

Lectureship aspirants buoyed up by UGC decision

R. Krishna Murthy

TURCH: The decision of the University Grants Commission (UGC) to do away with the National Eligibility Test (NET) for lectureship aspirants with Ph.D. and M.Phil. qualifications has brought cheers to deserving candidates.

The UGC decision has also come as a major relief to universities and colleges, which could now not only appoint well-qualified candidates with a fair for teaching, but also claim patronage for M.Phil. programmes, which had lost their importance over the years due to the NET stipulation, said R. Jayakant, Coordinator, English Department (Self Financing Stream), St. Joseph's College.

There have been several instances of deserving candidates failing to pass the examination due to the hurdle they face in Paper I, which is considered to be of a general nature.

The NET, formulated as a qualifying test for Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) since 1984, was extended for lectureship in 1989 after the Central Government entrusted the task with the UGC, based on the observations of the R.C. Meadwala Committee and the National Commission of Teachers on Higher Education that there must be a rigorous merit-based selection for the entry level of teaching profession.

However, the dearth of qualified hands is stated to have compelled the UGC to dispense with the NET as recommended in the interim report of the NET Review Committee, chaired by Balchandra Mungkar, Member, Planning Commission, New Delhi.

The Committee elicited the views of a cross-section of the society regarding the utility, effectiveness and continuity of UGC-NET, through a questionnaire.

But, academics apprehend that the decision may still fail to make teaching an attractive career option.

Until UGC scales of pay is made mandatory on the part of institutions for recruiting well-qualified candidates, who are usually absorbed in lieu of consolidated pay by self-financing colleges, and Government/aided colleges running self-financing courses, the change could leave behind only a cosmetic impact.

Respective State Governments should fill the vacancies caused by retirements without further delay, they insist.

Welcoming the UGC decision, the Association of University Teachers (AUT) observed that exemption for Ph.D holders was already recommended by the Rajbavel Committee and the exemption given now to M.Phil holders will lead to a healthy competition. In the current context, there was an urgent need to comprehensively revise the M.Phil syllabus, and strengthen the paper on 'Research Methodology' through inclusion of the syllabus of paper I of NET examination. The appointees must be equipped properly to contribute to education, said Felicia, Vice-President AUT, in a statement.

However, the decision of the UGC regarding minimum qualifications should not be altered periodically since it would lead to anomalies in service conditions. In the wake of the Central Government announcing its decision to fill up one lakh vacancies in Central universities, NET system with reservations for SC/ST/OBC must be followed.

Self-financing colleges must also be directed to follow reservation and obtain qualification approval for their appointments from the universities as done by aided colleges, Prof. Felicia insisted.

AUT hails Govt. move
Special Correspondent

TURCH: The Association of University Teachers has welcomed the State Government's decision to regularise the services of contract teachers in schools.

Welcoming the announcements made in the Governor's address to the Assembly on Wednesday, the AUT Vice-President, Prof. Felicia, in a release, commended the decision on reduction of fees of self-financing courses in government colleges, ushering in reservation for SC, ST and OBC in all unaided self-financing colleges, repeal of the TESMA, filling of existing vacancies in government departments and colleges with regular and qualified staff under time scales of pay.

However, the association expressed disappointment over the absence of any announcement with regard to the release of arrears of pay, consequent to the pay revision with effect from January 1, 1996. The Chief Minister, M. Karunanidhi, had then announced that the arrears would be released with interest after five years. Also no mention was made about restoration of "rights" taken away by the previous Government, as promised in the election manifesto of DMK. The expectations of teachers on the repeal of the "Constituent Government Colleges Act" have also not been fulfilled.

Demands are related to Rastogi Pay Commission

TURCH: The Association of University Teachers has urged the Prime Minister to immediately satisfy the Cabinet note sent to him by the Ministry of Human Resources Development on three vital demands relating to the Rastogi Pay Commission.

Pointing out that the AUT had led off its participation in the rotet dharna, organised in New Delhi by the All-India Federation of University and College Teachers' Organisations, only based on a Prime Minister's assurance of speedy action on the demands, the Vice-President of the AUT, Felicia, said that rectification of Career Advancement Scheme warranted immediate attention.

In a statement issued here, she said that anomalies had been caused in promotions to the posts of Lecturer - Senior Scale (LSS) and Lecturer Selection Grade (LSG) on completion of six and 11 years of service respectively due to the Government's implementation of CAS with effect from July 27, 1996, instead of from January 1, 1996. It has delayed the benefits.

Emphasising parity for Librarians and Directors of Physical Education (DPE) with college teachers, the statement said that in spite of prescribing the same minimum qualifications of a pass in National Eligibility Test (NET) with 55 per cent marks in post-graduation, Librarians and DPEs were not considered in matters of CAS, sanction of additional increments for Ph.D., and higher fixation for LSG.

Likewise, the Government must ensure a minimum of three promotions in a college teacher's career, as enunciated by the Rajbavel Pandian Commission (Fifth Pay Commission). The Government, while accepting the Commission's recommendations and implementing them, did not bring college teachers under the purview. Consequently, many senior teachers on the verge of retirement were stagnating even without provision for annual increments, she said.

Modifications in NET/SLET pattern sought

Association of University Teachers' appeal

Staff Reporter

TIRUCHI: The Association of University Teachers has sought modifications in the existing pattern of the National Eligibility Test/State-Level Eligibility Test in order to ensure that the intellectual attributes of candidates are tested.

While the emotional and moral attributes could be tested in the personal interview, a national-level common aptitude test is a vital need to assess the candidates' linguistic and critical competencies, synthesis and judgement, and general knowledge. There have been instances of 'undeserving' candidates emerging successful under the current pattern.

The University Grants Commission must hold the test in English and all Indian languages simultaneously to ensure uniformity and eliminate the need for SLET, said the AUT's Tiruchi unit Vice-President, Felicia. A pass in NET should not be made mandatory for candidates possessing Ph.D qualification, in deference to the recommendations of the Rastogi Pay Review Committee.

Referring to the constitution of Prof. Mungkar Committee by the Union Human Resources Development Ministry to revisit NET-SLET, and to decide upon its continuation, Prof. Felicia, while insisting that a national-level eligibility test is a need to select competent teachers at college and university levels, felt that papers II and III should be scrapped, since they only retest what had already been tested and certified at the post-graduate level.

Also, equal importance must be accorded to the scores in university level examination and personal interview.

Based on a consultation between the AUT and the All India Federation of University and College Teachers' Organisations (AIFUCTO), Prof. Felicia said that they do not subscribe to the retest, administered on the assumption that the testing and certification made by the universities in the country were fundamentally flawed and (hence) could not be relied upon as a measure of excellence.

The UGC should not only define the syllabi clearly but also publish on its web site the objective-type question papers, the correct solutions, and the marks obtained by each candidate.

It should also provide the facility for acquiring photocopies of answer scripts in lieu of fee, and make the process transparent by providing for reevaluation, in order to restore the credibility of NET.
