DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION,

VOLUME - IV

COMPILED BY ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY TEACHERS

FOREWORD

I am delighted to bring out the Fourth Volume of Collection of G.O.s and Proceedings of the D.C.E. The first volume was a compendium of G.O.s and Proceedings issued during the two years 1999-2001, the second volume comprised those obtained during 2001-2002, the Third Volume pertained to those issued during 2002-2003, where as the present Fourth Volume contains G.O.s and Proceedings of DCE issued during the three years 2003-2006 upto 31.03.2006.

I wish to recall what I had written in the FOREWORD for the Third Volume which is given within quotes. "In one sense, I am very unhappy to bring out this volume (Third) as it contains many G.O.s which snatch away all our hard earned rights. The onslaught on Government employees and teachers in Tamil nadu unleashed by the Tamil Nadu Government is unheard of, in any part of our country ... but I am very confident that the next issue shall definitely contain G.O.s restoring the lost benefits".

True to my prediction, this volume contains many G.O.s restoring our lost benefits. How ever we are yet to get orders on the following :

- (a) Calculation of pension on last month's pay instead of 10 months average emoluments.
- (b) Full Pension for 30 years of service instead of 33 years of service
- (c) Commutation of pension at 40% instead of $31\frac{1}{3}\%$.
- (d) Payment of Pongal Bonus every year.

These four issues which are common for all government employees & teachers find a mention in the election manifesto of DMK, which has been swept back to power and let us hope that the fifth volume shall definitely include orders on these issues as well.

Issues pertaining to college teachers are the following :

- (a) Stagnation increments
- (b) Increments for Ph.D. for all teachers with Ph.D. for the entire period of pay revision (from the date of acquiring Ph.D. or 1.1.96 which ever is later, up to 31.12.2005) without the increments getting absorbed on account of higher fixation at 14940 or selection grade / senior scale.
- (c) Rectification of Senior/Junior anomaly due to sanction of Ph.D. increments.
- (d) Extension of the benefit of increase in special Provident Fund from Rs.5000/- to Rs. 10,000/-
- (e) Recredit of E.L. for the period from 24.7.2003 till date of joining duty during the July 2003 strike.

I am pretty sure our State Office bearers shall soon get favourable orders on the above issues from the employee friendly Tamil Nadu Government. I thank the AUT unit of Holy Cross College for sponsoring the cost of this Fourth Volume.

Long Live AUT!

6. From the Accountant General (A&E), Chennai, Letter No. FMI/I/9-14 / 2002 - 2003/194, dated : 03-12-2002.

ORDER :

In the Government Order first read above, among other things, it has been ordered that 60% of the arrears accruing on account of pay revision for the period from 1-1-1996 to 31-3-1998 shall be credited to General Provident Fund Account of the employees. In the Government Order second read above it has been ordered that the above arrears shall be paid to the employees after 5 years i.e. in the year 2003 with interest and the interest shall accrue with effect from 1-4-1998. In the Government Order third read above relevant provisions in General Provident Fund Rules have been amended in order to enable the Accountant General (A&E), Chennai to keep open the Provident Fund Account beyond the date of retirement of the Government Employees whose pay revision arrears with interest have been ordered to be paid after 5 years i.e. in the year 2003.

2. As the State has had to face an un-precedent financial crisis since the year 2000-2001 which has made it extremely difficult to pay these arrears. The Government has examined the issue of payment of 60% arrears of pay revision ordered in 1998. It will not be possible for the Government to release the entire amount involved in the pay revision arrears to the Government employees who retire after 1-4-2004 financial year itself. As the arrear amount constituted a substantial financial liability, the Government has been unable to pay out the same in one go. Taking into consideration the present financial position of the State and all relevant factors, the Government will pay the balance 60% pay and allowances arrears as follows:

- * 60% pay arrears in respect of those who are still in service will be deposited in a non-interest bearing deposit account from 1.4.2003 and will be paid on retirement in the form of Small Savings Scrips in three instalments. For Example, those retiring during the year 2004-2005, the first instalment of the balance arrears together with interest upto 31.3.2003 paid in 2004-2005, the second and third instalment will be paid in subsequent years.

3. Accordingly, the Government, issue the following orders:

- (i) The total arrears payable to each employee calculated upto 31-3-2003 with interest from 1998-99 upto 31.3.2003 will be transferred to a non-interest bearing public deposit account under the following new head of account: K. Deposits and Advances (b) Deposit not bearing interest - 8443 Deposits - 800 - Other Deposits - A.R. Deposit of pay revision arrears under Tamil Nadu Revised Scale of Pay Rules 1998 of Tamil Nadu Government Servants. (8443 00 800 AR 000B) (Receipt) (8443 00 800 AR 0000)
- (ii) The Accountant General (A&E) will transfer the 60% of the entire arrears which were credited into General Provident Fund account together with interest upto 31.3.2003 to the deposit head of account mentioned in Para 3 (i) above. Interest will not be allowed on this amount after 31.3.2003. In respect of Teachers of Elementary Schools and Aided Schools and Educational Officers concerned who are maintaining the General Provident Fund Account shall send proposal to the Government to transfer the pay revision arrears with interest to the deposit account mentioned in Para 3 (i) to the Government for issue of orders separately.
- (iii) In respect of employees, who retire from service after 1-4-2004, the pay revision arrears computed as on 31-3-2003 will be released to the employees in three equal instalments in the form of Small Savings Scrips either as Time Deposit for three years or National Savings Certificate VIII issued option shall be obtained from the individuals. The first instalment will be paid from the starting year of retirement of the employee, second and third instalments will be paid in two subsequent years. No interest is payable beyond 31-3-2003.

(4) The Accountant General (A&E) will issue authorization in respect of each employee retired after 1-4-2004, indicating the total amount due as on 31-3-2003 and the amount to be paid in three equal annual instalments and also furnish the statement to the Heads of Departments / Heads of Offices and the retiring employees. Based on the above authorization order, the Heads of Departments / Heads of offices will issue proceedings for the payment of arrears in three annual instalments and claim the amount due in the starting year of retirement of the employee by presenting the bills in Pay and Accounts Offices / Treasury Offices / Sub - Treasury Offices and to make payment to the individual in the form of Small Savings Scrips either as Post Office Time Deposit for three years or National Savings Certificate VIII Issue. The particulars regarding the first, second and third instalment due and paid for each retiring employee shall be entered in the register maintained in their offices.

(5) Govt. Lr. No.40282A/K/2003-6, P & AR (K) Dept. dt. 24.02.2004

In the references cited. It was ordered to regulate the period of absence from duty by Government Employees/Teachers for participating in the illegal strike and reinstated in service as per the orders of the Supreme Court from 1.7.2003, 2.7.2002 to 24.7.2003 as Extraordinary Leave without Pay and Allowance.

2. Employees and Teachers have requested the Hon'ble Chief Minister to take :
and to treat the period of absence during the strike from 1.7.2003 / 2.7.2003 to 24.7.2003 on the principle of "No Work No Pay" cannot be deviated from. However, considering the circumstances and the fact that they had already expressed regret in the Higher Court and to end the strike and to return to duty very early, it has been decided to take a magnanimous decision regarding the whole episode of the strike by the employees and teachers as a misguided unfortunate order to ensure that the Government employees and teachers would extend their unstinting support to the Government in all its efforts to the benefit of the poor and the needy, the period from 2.7.2003 upto and including 4.7.2003 will be treated as "No work No Pay". The remaining period from 5.7.2003 to 24.07.2003 will be treated as duty.

3. Accordingly, Government direct that, in partial modification of the orders issued in this regard, the period of absence from duty by the Government Employees / Teachers who participated in the strike, shall be regulated as follows.

- (i) The period from 1.7.2003 or 2.7.2003 up to and inclusive of 4.7.2003 be regulated as Extraordinary Leave without Pay and Allowances on the principle of "No Work No Pay".
- (ii) The period from 5.7.2003 up to and inclusive of 24.7.2003 be regulated as duty.

DA MERGER

F.No.105/1/2004/IC GOVERNMENT OF INDIA MINISTRY OF FINANCE DEPARTMENT OF EXPEND

Dated the

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject : Merger of 50% of Dearness Allowance/Dearness Relief with basic pay to Central Government employee/pensioners w.e.f. 1-4-2004

The Fifth CPC in Para 105.11 of their Report had recommended that 50% of Dearness Allowance be covered into Dearness Pay each time the CPI increases by 50% over the base rate of the last Pay Commission.

2. This recommendation of Fifth CPC has been considered and the Government has decided to decide that, with effect from 1-4-2004, DA equal to 50% of the existing basic pay be merged with the basic pay and shown distinctly as Dearness Pay (DP) and shall be counted for purposes like payment of allowances, transfer grant, retirement gratuity, contribution to GPF, License Fee, monthly contribution for CGHS, various allowances and entitlements for LTC, TA/DA while on tour and transfer and government recommitment, etc. However, all other matters shall continue to be governed on the basis of the basic pay alone with the exception of Dearness Pay. In case of existing pensioners, Dearness Relief equal to 50% of present pension will w.e.f. 1-4-2004 be merged with pension and shown distinctly as Dearness Pay. Dearness Allowance/Dearness Relief converted into Dearness Pay/ Dearness Relief respectively would be deducted from the existing rate of Dearness Allowance/100% of present pension.

3. To ensure that pensioners retiring between 1-4-2004 to 31-1-2005 do not suffer a loss in fixation of pension, as a special dispensation in their case, DA equal to 50% of basic pay would be treated as basic pay for purposes of computation of pension. DA equal to 50% of basic pay received by them prior to 1-4-2004. Consequently element of dearness allowance will exist only for pensioners retired/ retiring from Government of India upto 31-1-2005.

4. In so far as the persons serving in the Indian Audit & Accounts Department are concerned, these orders issue after consultation with the Controller & Auditor General.

PAY AND ALLOWANCES AND PENSION - Merger of Dearness Allowance pension to State Government employees/pensioners with effect from 1.1.2006-

Read

1. Government of India. Ministry of Finance. Department of Expenditure. F.No. 105/1/2004-1C. dated: 1.3.2004.
2. G.O.Ms.No.56, Finance (Allowances), dated: 13.1.2006.
3. G.O.Ms No.58, Finance (Pension), dated: 13.1.2006.

ORDER:

The Government has decided to merge Dearness Allowance equal to existing basic pay / pension with the basic pay/pension with effect from 1.1.2006 accordingly direct that with effect from 1.1.2006, Dearness Allowance equal to existing basic pay of the State Government employees shall be merged with the existing basic pay shown distinctly as Dearness Pay (D.P.) which would be counted for purposes like Dearness Allowance, contribution to General Provident Fund, retirement benefits, travel advances, etc. However the entitlements for Leave Travel Concession, Travelling Daily Allowance while on tour and transfer and Government accommodation shall continue to be governed on the basis of basic pay alone without taking into account Dearness Pay.

2. The Government also direct that in the case of existing pensioners Dearness Allowance equal to 50% of the present pension shall with effect from 1.1.2006 be merged with pension and shown distinctly as Dearness Pension. This Dearness Pension shall be taken into account for the purpose of calculation of Dearness Allowance.

3. The Government also direct that with a view to ensure that the pensioners between 1.1.2006 and 31.12.2006 are not facing any loss in fixation of pension, Dearness Allowance equal to 50% of the basic pay shall be treated as basic pay for purposes of computation of pension in respect of pensioners by them prior to 1.1.2006. Consequently, the element of Dearness Pension will be taken into account for those pensioners who have retired from service up to 31.12.2005.

4. The Government also direct that the merger of 50% Dearness Allowance with basic pay above shall be admissible to full time employees who are at present getting Dearness Allowance and paid from contingencies at fixed monthly rates. The merger of 50% Dearness Allowance sanctioned in this order shall not be admissible to part-time employees.

5. The merger of 50% Dearness Allowance with basic pay will also be applicable to teaching and non-teaching staff working in aided educational institutions, employees of Government bodies, employees governed by the University Grants Commissioner / All India Technical Education scales of pay, the Teachers / Physical Directors / Librarians in Government and Aided Polytechnics and Special Diploma Institutions, Village Assistants in the Department, Noon Meal Organizers, Child Welfare Organizers and Anganwadi Workers.

6. The Dearness Allowance equal to 50% of basic pay / pension converted into Dearness Pay / Dearness Pension respectively would be deducted from the existing rate of Dearness Allowance.

7. The expenditure shall be debited to the sub-detailed head of account 03. Dearness Pay under the respective detailed Head. 03. Dearness Allowance.

8. The expenditure in respect of Pensioners / Family Pensioners shall be debited to the detailed head of account 27. Pensions - 07. Dearness Pension.
